First Ordination of a Bishop in Alexandria-Cornwall in 50 Years

Three years ago this week, we were busily attending to the final preparations for the ordination of our new bishop. It was on Sunday, September 2, 2012, at St. Finnan's Cathedral that Father Marcel Damphousse became Bishop Marcel. It was a beautiful sunny day and the Cathedral was packed! Bishops, priests and deacons from all over the diocese and the country came. To read a full account of this exciting day go to the Cornwall Standard-Freeholder. Visit our website to view more photos.
